

INTERNACIONAL AWARD
ON METEOROLOGY EDUARD FONTSERE 2017

In order to promote and disseminate the knowledge about meteorology and climatology in the Mediterranean basin, the Catalan Meteorological Society (ACAM) establishes the International Award on Meteorology Eduard Fontserè 2017. The award is sponsored by the Catalan Meteorological Service (MeteoCat) and the Environmental Area of Diputació de Barcelona, and it is endowed with 2.500 EUR. It will recognize papers published on atmospheric science journals included in the SCI (Science Citation Index, Thomson Reuters) or SCOPUS, between 2015 and 2017, which offer a noteworthy contribution to the improvement on the knowledge of the meteorology and climatology in the Mediterranean basin.

RULES:

1. Submission

1.1 The published paper has to be send as a PDF file via e-mail to pef@acam.cat, with the subject “Award Eduard Fontserè 2017”

1.2 Additionally, the submission should include:

- A presentation form and acceptance rules, signed by the author or authors. This document can be download from the ACAM website: <http://www.acam.cat/pef>
- A document containing the full citation of the paper (Journal, Volume, year of publication...), and a short Curriculum Vitae of all authors.

1.3 The deadline for submission is September 28th 2017.

2. Judges and verdict.

2.1 The panel of Judges will be chaired by a member of the board team of ACAM, and for three other members: one proposed by MeteoCat, one by Diputació of Barcelona, and one more proposed by ACAM. The panel of judges is entitled to ask for external assistance to experts about the submitted papers.

2.2 ACAM will publish the final result on the web (www.acam.cat) before the XXIII Jornadas Eduard Fontserè 2017.

2.3 The award will be handed during the closing ceremony of the symposium

Jornades de Meteorologia Eduard Fontserè, on 26th November 2017.

2.4 The award may be declared not awarded under the criteria of the panel of Judges.

3. Award and presentation.

3.1 A single award of 2.500 EUR will be endowed to the awarded paper.

3.2 The import will be transferred to awarded author during the second half of January 2018.

3.3 The awarded paper will be presented as oral communication during the meeting XXIII Jornades de Meteorologia Eduard Fontserè.

Participants are bound to accept any decision taken by ACAM on any questions not dealt with in the present Rules.
